

There's Lots of Fun Things to do at AMY!

In the “Full Circle: Recycled into Art” exhibition:

- Challenge yourself to identify the recycled materials in the artworks on display!
- Learn about recycling in Mesa
- Make a torn recycled paper collage in the shape of Arizona state
- Challenge your memory with a matching game
- Practice creative decision making in the Sort the Recycling activity
- Make a beautiful butterfly out of recycled magazines
- Let us know what you think about the exhibition
- Watch a video about an artist that uses recycled materials
- Read up on recycling around the world and how to make recycled art

In the “Día de los Muertos: A Celebration of Life and Art” exhibition:

- Find out what funny skeletons and artistic altars honoring ancestors (and even a beloved cat) have to do with Día de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead celebration
- Read about family traditions and the Day of the Dead
- Make a tissue-paper flower commemorating the celebration
- Express your thankfulness for others by making an Ex Voto (Latin for “out of thankfulness”) drawing to leave behind or take with you
- Solve our Rowdy Skeleton puzzle

In ArtVille:

- See how our Van “Goghs!”
- Have a pretend snack in ArtVille’s Bistro
- Check out today’s art project in Art’s Studio
- Fix and serve your parents and caregivers a dinner in Art’s Kitchen
- Pick fruit from the tree and harvest corn in Art’s Garden
- Read a book about art in Art’s Living Room

Elsewhere:

- Step into the dark and sneak a peek at some glow-in-the-dark artwork in Scott McNeil’s “Way to Glow” exhibition
- Have a snack and relax in the FamilyZone
- Discover unique and affordable items in the Gift Shop
- Check out programs, workshops, classes and special events coming up at AMY
